Headteacher's Newsletter Autumn Term 2021 Week 6

Dear All

This week, I have been excited to visit all classes to observe their lessons. I have been delighted to see the children engaged in their learning from Reception enjoying story time and painting; Year 1 engrossed in finding parts of whole numbers; Year 2 reciting their text map for their news report 'The Big Bad Wolf' to me and our Trust CEO; Year 3 being scientists investigating which material have the most friction; Year 4 and 5 in PE and Year 6 learning to record multiplying two digit numbers by a two digit number! I was particularly excited to sit in on music lessons for Year 5 and Year 6 who are learning to play the glockenspiels and xylophones. I was so impressed with them all keeping to the same rhythm and ability to learn a tune. It is amazing the breadth of learning that our children have.

On Monday, Miss Walker led assembly on Dyslexia Awareness Day. Children were really engaged to learn about dyslexia and the strategies people use to support this. On Thursday, Mr Brown helped us celebrate National Poetry Day too by reading us lots of poems. We hoped this would inspire them to read more poems for enjoyment. Some were really funny!

I do hope you have all had a chance to look at the children's photographs— they looked lovely! It is not always easy to take photos on a child let alone over 300!

This week we had an external advisor who visited during lunchtime. She was extremely complimentary about the behaviour of the children, how well they played together and the older children were nurturing the younger children. It is always nice to know others spot how caring and polite our children are!

As part on our constant online safety reminders, we have been made aware that some of our older children appear to be discussing/watching a program called 'The Squid Game' on Netflix. Just to make parents/carers aware this, this program has a Netflix rating guidance of 15 years old. Please do check your parental controls just in case.

Just a reminder that from next week, I shall not be in school for the next few weeks. The SLT will be on site or please do send an email via the school office. I will still be in hospital on Friday, so Mr Boffa will be writing the newsletter!

Have a lovely weekend

The photographer commented on how well behaved and polite, the children all were, when he was in school on Tuesday.

All children who were present for the photos will have received an individual card with a unique reference for ordering.

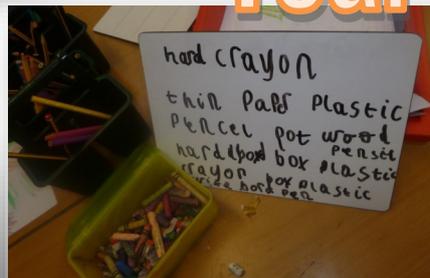

Year 6

Pullman class taking part in collaborative art linked to their topic of Natural Disasters. The final piece is amazing!

Year 1

In Year 1, we were investigating materials this week and why we choose materials for a certain purpose. We compared a bean bag with a chair, pastel crayons with pencils, whiteboards with blackboards.

Reception have been exploring colours in nature for forest school this week. They have also been investigating pairs. Reception matched the pairs of socks and then worked on developing fine motor skills by pegging them on the line!

Reception

This week we have been following the children's interests in our new fish. We have explored under the sea and spoken about how to look after the fish. We have been ordering fish by size and number sequencing. We have made different kinds of fish in the art area and enjoyed the shark in the park story too.

Parking

We have been made aware that some of our families have recently received penalty notices for parking outside the school. Penalty notices are issued by the Council and we are unfortunately unable to comment or advise on this issue. The zig zag lines are marked clearly as are the times where parking is not allowed on these markings. Please park considerately around the neighbouring properties to the school. We do have slightly staggered starting times to help alleviate this issue. Thank you for your assistance.
